

The New Fishing School!

Thanks to the Children and Family Capacity Building Initiative, a project of the Meyer Foundation, The Fishing School has rebranded!

While the look may be new, our commitment to improving the academic and life skills of youth in Washington, DC remains the same.

Renewed Commitment!

In addition to our progress as an organization, our re-branding is evidence of our commitment to excellence. Pictured above, TFS staff show off their new uniforms!

Although it is new, fresh gear, our branded apparel, more importantly, helps to ensure the safety of our students. TFS staff are now more easily identified at each of our sites.

New Designs!

Our re-branding not only affects our external image, as shown in our new business and thank you cards above, it affects our programming as well. Our new hall passes help to ensure safety as students travel through the hallways at each site during our Afterschool program.

Our new “Tom Lewis Student of the Year” award is sponsored by Wyndham Vacation Ownership, and honors an exemplary TFS student each year. Also pictured are TFS students in the Tech and Theater Clubs, which are two of the newly branded TFS clubs for students.
