

the fishing
school

Tom Lewis Fellowship

Make a difference serving as a Lead Instructor in an award-winning out-of-school time program.

Earn an Annual Stipend of up to $16,000

For over 30 years, The Fishing School has provided research-based, out-of-school time programs for students in underserved communities in Washington, DC

The Tom Lewis Fellowship is a part-time position available to current college students, recent graduates and those not attending college who have an interest in or experience working with youth. Those without youth development experience but majoring in education, social work, human development, early childhood development or another field related to youth are strongly encouraged to apply.

BENEFITS

- » $16,000 annual stipend, 20 to 25 hour work week
- » State-of-the-art training facility
- » Paid pre-employment training
- » Paid year-round professional development
- » Career exploration
- » Life skills development
- » Branded uniforms

New Candidate Training

August 22, 2022 - September 2, 2022

Program Start Date

September 5, 2022

Program End Date

June 23, 2023

Apply Now

Please email your resume and cover letter to employment@fishingschool.org

advancing students

engaging parents

supporting schools

Tom Lewis Fellowship

MISSION

The Fishing School (TFS) is a nonprofit serving the Washington, DC communities most in need. Our mission is to prepare elementary and middle school youth for success in high school and life by improving their academic performance and life skills; and engaging them and their parents in intensive, multi-year, and research-based out-of-school time and parental engagement programs and activities.

Reports to: Site Manager

Hours: M-F 2:30pm- 6:00pm (in-person)

Why Join our Team?

- » enrich the lives of young people and their families
- » ongoing Professional Development Opportunities
- » generous stipend of up to $16,000
- » flexible Schedules
- » year-round Work Opportunities
- » access to TFS' State-of-the-art Training Facility and Headquarters

Qualifications

- » current or former student at an accredited University or Community College
- » those who didn't attend college but have an interest and or experience with youth development
- » experience working in a non-traditional educational setting
- » demonstrates professionalism and confidentiality
- » ability to collaborate and interface with schoolteachers and fellow instructors

Responsibilities

- » implementing engaging lesson plans for STEAM and Life Skills activities
- » developing and leading student-selected enrichment clubs
- » providing homework help and implementing our blended-learning curriculum
- » assisting students to develop positive character traits and life skills
- » implementing and participating in special projects and parent engagement events
- » maintaining a daily schedule, classroom rules, the upkeep of equipment and supplies, and record-keeping
- » communicating regularly with Site Managers and school day teachers
- » participating in all staff meetings and professional development, as scheduled

Please send your resume and cover letter to employment@fishingschool.org

AFTERSCHOOL

- » Math and Reading Tutorials
- » STEAM Projects
- » Life Skills
- » Clubs/recreation
- » Technology Infusion

SUMMER CAMP

- » Free full-day programming
- » STEAM Projects
- » Life Skills
- » College Readiness
- » Technology Infusion